Oscar Fraly, the young man arrested on suspicion of being one of the number who stoned the C. and O. passenger car near Dover Wednesday was dismissed by the Police Judge and ordered out of town, being escorted to the city limits by Policeman Tolle to see that he obeyed the mandate of the Court.

Halloween here was a very tame affair, the boys being on their good behavior, as it were. With the exception of removing a few signs and gates and transferring them to other quarters, the night passed quietly and in comparison to ye olden times, when the youth cut loose and everything went, was of a decidedly gentle affair. Of course the girls had their looking glasses and candles, walking backwards and stumbling over ash barrels and such like, that they might get a glimpse of their future husband, as of old and ever will be, was to be expected.

DIAMONDS AT DOVER

Reported That an Immense Stone of Great Value Was Found in an Indian Mound

Word comes from the historic village of Dover, in the West end of this county, that a genuine diamond of immense dimensions, was unearthed by a party who was digging in the beautiful Indian mound which stands within the corporate limits of that town.

It is said that the diamond found is a very fine stone and is about the size of a guinea egg (or a piece of coal.) Excitement runs high down there, and everybody expects to wear diamonds in a few weeks.

Hope the sensation won't blow out like the great "Black Diamond Railroad," of unpleasant memory.

This season's greatest melodramatic success will be seen at the Washington Theater Monday, November 4th. It has been most enthusiastically received throughout the country. The play is said to contain more heart interest, stronger situations, and more interesting characters than any melodramatic production that has been seen for years. The play is considerably superior to any popular priced attraction. Seats now on sale at Williams'.

At the coming state election next Tuesday Mason county has a candidate whom the people of this, his native city and county, should delight to honor regardless of politics. That man is Senator William H. Cox, who was born in Maysville fifty-one years ago and who has spent all the days of his life among us. During all his life, we who have watched his career can truthfully attest his worth as a man and his excellence as a citizen.

No enterprise for the betterment of Maysville has ever been started but what he was one of the foremost to take a hand and push it to a success with his money, a ripe mind and a directing energy, all of which have made his name a by-word in the good work of the upbuilding of our city; foremost at all times in Church and charitable efforts and to assist mankind; in assisting in the work of advancing and beautifying our city, he has always been a leader—not only a leader, but the leader, as he has spent more time and money in this municipal improvement than any other individual residing here. His work in this line stands today the pride and the ornament of Maysville, and thousands, yea, hundreds of thousands of dollars of his money has been invested in structures here, all of which are monuments to his enterprise and his energy, and better still, the vast sum was all spent right here at home among our own workmen.

For a number of years he served with energy and ability in the City Council and as Mayor of Maysville, and at no time in his life has there been the slightest taint of graft or greed upon his name nor the blemish of having dealt unfairly with his fellow man.

Not only is he a leading Church worker, but he occupies the same eminent position in the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Oddfellows, being

Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and Grand Representative from Kentucky at every meeting of the National body, where he is known, respected and loved by his brethren from every state in the Union. Here in Kentucky, with its 25,000 Oddfellows and its 26,000 Free-masons, among these two great societies his name is a synonym for honor, enterprise and wise counsel. In his home life he is a kind husband, father and good citizen; his daily life is open to all as an exemplar and a model in every walk where modesty combines with ability and enterprise to mould the noblest work of God—an honest man.

But it is as State Senator from this District, composed of the counties of Lewis and Mason, that his integrity has been tried and his ability demonstrated.

During the eight years which W. H. Cox has acted as Senator it is entirely safe to assert that no other state official, Republican or Democrat, ever enjoyed such trust and confidence as have been reposed in him by the people in his work at Frankfort. In the State Senate he has always occupied a leading part, performing his arduous work with promptness and assiduity, but never conspicuously, and to the satisfaction of not only his own party, the Republicans, but to the Democrats as well. The latter is evidenced by his appointment by the Democratic Governor and Lieutenant-Governor to places on the leading Senate committees and other positions of honor, always bestowed unsolicited.

As a member of the Special Committee appointed to revise the state revenue laws, and as a member of many other important committees, Senator Cox displayed conspicuous ability and patience, and at no time in his public career has he shown the unreasonable spirit of the partisan Republican; and while he is a leader in the Republican party, and only last winter was the caucus nominee for United States Senator from Kentucky, he stands for principle and honesty rather than party, and dislikes a scheming and grafting Republican as he does a Democrat of the same dishonest proclivities.

Such are the manly characteristics of Mason county's honored son and candidate for Lieutenant-Governor—William H. Cox. He is one of us, and one in whom all the people can trust. In presenting him for your kind suffrage THE PUBLIC LEDGER pledges the city of Maysville and the county of Mason as his sponsors, and pointing to the past eight years of his eminent public service, we promise the people of his beloved state of Kentucky the same devotion to duty and the same non-partisan wisdom if elected to preside over the deliberations of the State Senate as Lieutenant-Governor.

Now, fellow-citizens of Maysville and Mason county, remember that a city and county are seldom honored by having the two candidates for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, both native sons, as are A. E. Willson and W. H. Cox, and when you cast your ballot next Tuesday compliment the standard-bearers of old Mason with a big vote coming from all the people; then their hearts will be filled with a deeper sense of gratitude and their every official act shall be devoted to you as your loyal servants, for the triumph of law and justice and for the honor and glory of Old Kentucky.

I READ an exceeding bright and able speech the other day, made by the Hon. John E. Garner, of Winchester, Ky. Mr. Garner has been, until recently, an uncompromising Democrat, but he now thinks as we do, and means to act in the same manner.—Gen. Basil W. Duke, ex-Confederate at Louisville.

WHEN Hon. A. E. Willson spoke at Franklin a few days ago he was introduced by Hon. C. W. Milliken formerly Democratic Congressman from that District who said he refused to support the so-called Democracy of this state at the present time, and would help the Republicans win now. Then he would organize a new Democratic party in Kentucky and defeat the Republicans.

Danderine

GREW MISS LEWIS' HAIR

AND WE CAN PROVE IT

The Great Danderine Never Falls to Produce the Desired Results:

MISS Lewis' hair was very thin and it was less than two feet in length when she began using Danderine. She says her hair and scalp are now fairly teeming with new life and vigor. That's the main secret of this great remedy's success as a hair grower. It enlivens, invigorates and fairly electrifies the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, causing unusual and unheard-of activity on the part of these two most important organs, resulting in a strenuous and continuous growth of the hair.

The following is a reproduction of Miss Lewis' last letter:

January 3, 1905.

Dear Doctor Knowlton:

You know I told you in my first letter that my hair would not reach much below my shoulders, and that all of it together only made one tiny braid.

I am sending you my photograph, which I had taken at Stevens Bros. It tells the whole story better than I can tell it.

Everybody I know is using Danderine, so you see I am doing something to show my appreciation.

Sincerely yours, (Miss) EVA LEWIS.

Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known. It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25¢ bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1. per bottle

FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

HOW TO VOTE!

A valued subscriber writes THE LEDGER as follows—

"Does the election to be held Tuesday to prevent stock running at large in the county, include horses and hogs—especially hogs?

Please answer and oblige many voters."

The Kentucky Statutes, Section 456, defines the word cattle as including horse, mule, ass, hog, sheep or goat of any age or sex.

"Cattle generally," as used in the notice of the special election, includes swine, bovine and equine. So govern yourself accordingly.

To become a legal voter the law requires a residence of one year in the state, six months in the county and sixty days in the Precinct.

A person moving from one Ward to another in the city, and who has not resided sixty days in said Ward is not a legal voter. The next essential is your registration papers. Any person who has registered and whose certificate of registration has been lost or otherwise destroyed, may upon his filing his affidavit before the County Clerk showing that fact, obtain a duplicate certificate of registration, by paying the County Clerk a fee of fifty cents.

The Christian Endevor Society of the Christian Church was delightfully entertained last evening at the home of Miss Natalie Cooper in West Second street. It was a Hallowe'en event, and many of the mystic charms of this special time were provided for the entertainment of the guests. The evening's pleasures were plenty and various, and the social was very much a success.

Quite a shadow was cast upon this neighborhood Monday when the news was received of the sudden death of Mrs. Frank Gilp who resides on the Fleming pike. Mrs. Gilp was endowed with a sweet, loveable disposition and noble character, making her very dear to her many friends and relatives who mourn her loss. We cannot refrain from shedding tears when we recall the fact that only a few short months ago she stood before us a happy and beautiful young bride. Mr. Gilp, her devoted husband, and her loving parents, together with brothers and sister, have the sincerest sympathy of this neighborhood in their great sorrow.

BABY TORTURED FOR 6 MONTHS

By Terrible Itching Eczema—Face and Head a Solid Sore—Spread to His Hand and Legs—Would Scratch Until He Bleed—Tiny Sufferer Immediately Relieved and

ENTIRELY CURED IN 2 MONTHS BY CUTICURA

"When my son Walter was three weeks old, eczema appeared on his face. We did not know what it was so went to a doctor who treated him for three months. Then he was so bad that his face and head were nothing but one sore and his ears looked as if they were going to fall off, so we tried another doctor. He said he could cure him and we doctored them four months, the boy never getting any better. His hand and legs had big sores on them and for his sleep we could not think of it, the poor little fellow suffered so terribly. First I tied his hands to the crib to keep him from scratching, but when it got so bad I tied him in a shawl or he would scratch himself all bloody. When he was seven months old we tried a set of the Cuticura Remedies. The first application of Cuticura let him sleep and rest well, in one week the sores were gone but it stayed red and sometimes it would itch so we used Cuticura for two months, then he had a clear and white face. Now he is two years and seven months old and has never had eczema again. I hope this letter will help some who are suffering from skin disease. Every mother who has a boy suffering with skin disease should just try Cuticura; there is nothing better. Mrs. Louis Beck, R. D. 3, San Antonio, Tex., Apr. 15, '07."

A single set of Cuticura Remedies is often sufficient to cure torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, and annoying eczemas, rashes, and irritations, from infancy to age, when all other remedies fail.
